PRESENTS

Long Term Care Survey Process and Enforcement

Wednesday, June 10, 2009

Galt House Hotel and Suites

Louisville, Kentucky

Overview of Seminar

This seminar is designed to enhance the participants' knowledge of the state and federal long term care survey process and enforcement for certified nursing facilities.

Participants will:

- Identify immediate jeopardy;
- Understand issues regarding elopements;
- Understand issues regarding pressure ulcers; and
- Understand the requirements of an Allegation of Compliance (AOC) and a Plan of Correction (POC).

The seminar will also emphasize the resources to be utilized in the federal and state survey process.

Target Audience

Licensed Nursing Home Administrators and Directors of Nursing.

Presenters

Lisa Tripp, J.D. an assistant professor at John Marshall Law School in Atlanta where she teaches Health Care Law, Remedies and Torts. Professor Tripp previously practiced health care law and commercial litigation as an attorney for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The primary focus is on elder abuse and she has litigated many cases against nursing homes involving physical and sexual abuse, elopements, pressure sores, inadequate nutrition and hydration, deficient renal care and substandard care.

Jeri Ann Lundgren, RN, CWS, CWCN, Director of Wound and Continence Management has been working in long term care since 1990, specializing in wound care nationally since 1994. She is wound specialist certified by the American Academy of Wound Management and a wound care nurse certified by the Wound, Ostomy and Continence Society. Her extensive background in wound management in long term care nationally includes: survey management, litigation support, wound care consultation and program development, clinical expert for several QIOs and statewide pressure ulcer initiatives.
